

Kinship terms

1. Compare Table 2 and Table 11, and find out how siblings are
- addressed
- .

	Male Speaker	Female Speaker
Older brother (27)
Older sister (30)
Younger brother (34)
Younger sister (37)

List the three factors of address terms of siblings?

(i) _____ (ii) _____ (iii) _____

2. From Table 1, find the Korean kin terms of the following. Ignore the honorific term.

	Kin	Kin's spouse
Father's older brother
Father's younger brother
Father's older sister
Father's younger sister

What can you tell from this? _____

3. From Table 4, find the Korean kin terms (for address) of the following:

	Kin	Kin's spouse
Mother's older brother
Mother's younger brother
Mother's older sister
Mother's younger sister

4. Comparing your findings in #2 and #3, what can you tell about the Korean kinship system?

5. From Table 3 and Table 5, compare the kin terms of paternal relatives and maternal relatives.

	Paternal	Maternal Grandfather
Grandmother
Uncle
Uncle's wife

What do you notice from this? _____

6. From Table 7 and Table 8, find the kin terms of the following.

	Man (Table 7)	Woman (Table 8)
Spouse's older brother
Spouse's younger brother
Spouse's older sister
Spouse's younger sister

7. From Chart 4, name all the kins with the given kinship distance from Ego.

3-ch'on: _____

4-ch'on: _____

8. What kin is shared between me and the kin who is in 8-ch'on distance?

9. Chart 5 is from a 12th century document, Kyerim Yusa (Classified Facts about Koryô). Compared to your findings in #2 and #3, what do you notice with regard to the difference between paternal kins and maternal kins, and what can we tell about the Korean kinship system in the earlier period?

10. From the historical document, Kyerim Yusa, and pieces of evidence from dialects, King (2006) proposes a hypothesis about changes in the Korean kinship system. Summarize the changes below:

Before the 17th Century

After the 17th Century

Father's side _____ ----- > _____
 Vs. Mother's side

Male vs. Female _____ ----- > _____